Welcome to the home of The Ebon Myth.

While you may browse the site and the public forums without registration, to participate you will need to register.

You will need to register in two places. The website itself and the forums are separate programs with their own registration and logins.

When you register and log in to the main website, hit a browser refresh and it will show you the shout box and other options. The link to the forums is on the lower left hand corner. There you will also find links to the DKP system, the Guild Roster, the Guild Bank and the Guild Chat options.

Once you register on the forums, you will receive an email. You need to click on a link in that email to activate your registration. Then you will be able to log in and use the forums. Please make a note of your login and password information for the website and the forums. You will need them every time you log in.

Thanks and enjoy the site.
